Goals: The Pediatric Obesity SIG will:

- Provide up-to-date recommendations and research findings in the diagnosis and management of obesity and related comorbidities
- Educate subspecialists, primary care physicians, patients and the public regarding recommendations for the prevention and treatment of pediatric obesity
- Advocate for appropriate treatment of pediatric obesity
- Promote the treatment of pediatric obesity in a chronic disease model
- Facilitate collaboration in practice methods and research opportunities.